GENERAL INFORMATION

Description

This course walks Junior High students through Scripture using different reflection methods each quarter: S.O.A.P., 3-2-1 reflections, a Two Truths and a Feeling study of the Sermon on the Mount, and Interview the Character studies of major biblical figures. The goal is to build a weekly habit of reading, reflecting, and applying Scripture.

Expectations and Goals

Students are expected to bring their Bible and journal to class each week, complete that week's reflection using the assigned method, and participate in class discussion. By the end of the year, students should have a consistent habit of personal Bible study, be able to apply each of the four reflection methods, and complete two reflection essays and a character-study project.

COURSE MATERIALS

Required Materials

- A Bible (any translation)
- A journal or notebook dedicated to weekly reflections
- A pen or pencil

Optional Materials

- Colored pens or highlighters for journaling

Required Text

The Bible — translation of the student/family's choice

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND RESOURCES

Weekly Reflection Methods

Each quarter uses a different method for weekly Scripture reflection.

S.O.A.P. (Q1): a fill-in-the-blank format — Verse, One thing I noticed, One way I'll live this out today, Prayer.

3-2-1 (Q2): 3 words that stuck out, 2 questions the student has, 1 thing they're taking away.

Two Truths and a Feeling (Q3): two things the passage teaches (facts/truths), and one feeling or thought it gave the student.

Interview the Character (Q4): 3 questions the student would like to ask the biblical character being studied.

Grading & Communication

Students are assessed on weekly participation and reflections, the two quarterly reflection essays (Q2 and Q3), and the Q4 character presentation.
